Wednesday, December 1. 1703.

From the Harlem Courant, dated December 1.

Constantinople, October 1.

ON the 17th of last Month, the new Sultan Achmet made his Entry into this City. 650 loaded Mules, 3000 Camels, and 100 Waggon's loaded with Money and Goods came first. After them came several Turkish Bashaws mounted on Horses richly caparison'd. Then came several Turkish Ministers, Officers, and Men of Quality; Then the Family of Mahomet 500 in Number with green Turbans. After these the Alcoran inclos'd in a Box set with Jewels was brought on a young Mule. And after it follow'd 400 Doctors of the Law. Then came 27 Led Horses very richly accoutred, And last the Sultan on Horseback. On the 21st 4000 Janisaries who had not been at Adrianople mutined, and demanded 25 Rix-dollars each; and the next Day 200 Houses were set on Fire, which 'tis thought was done by the said Rebels: But the other Janisaries have declar'd against them, and will easily reduce them. The Plague is very rife here.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Nov. 29.

Constantinople, Sept. 24. 'Tis generally reported and believed here that the Person whose Head was cut off and his Trunk cast into the River, was not the Musti; and that the real Musti is fled into Asia, where 'tis to be apprehended he will raise new Com-motions. The Janisaries are likewise very mutinous for their Arrears.

From the Hague Gazette, dated Nov. 29.

Rome, Nov. 3. Prince Vahini is releas'd from the Castle of St. Angelo, and is banish'd to Orvieto, whither he is conducted under a strong Guard; The Countess of Carandini is put into the Prison of the Inquisition. The Congregation of the Holy Office has condemn'd Don Francisco Cinaglia to the Gallies for Life; and Signior Joseph Mille Fanti a Florentine for 3 Years for writing Lampoons against the Government. A Copy is handed about of a Letter written by the Emperor of Abyssinia to the Pope, to desire his Holiness to send him new Missionaries: The Supercription of which Letter is pretty Singular, running thus, 'Adrian Saghed, by the Grace of our Lord Jesus Christ Emperor of Ethiopia, Nabia, Sheba, and of all the Confines of Arabia, Of an illustrious Race, Descended of the Queen of Sheba, the Trampler on his Enemies, the Defender of those who seek his Protection; the Supporter of the Faith of Jesus Christ; the King of Soldiers and of unconquer'd Armies; Full-Moon of his Kingdom without Eclipse, &c.

From the Hague Gazette, dated Nov. 26.

Basil, Nov. 14. By the last Advices from Piemont of the 3d of this Month, we learn that the Count d'Aversberg the Emperor's Minister, had had Audience of the Duke of Savoy, in which he deliver'd to his Royal Highness a Commission from the Emperor creating him Generalissimo of the Imperial Troops in Italy. According to the same Advices Prince Eugene of Savoy has written to the Duke of Savoy, that the Emperor would in a little time send him 20000 Germans, and that his Imperial Majesty had made him a Present of all the Imperial Fiefs situate in the Neighbourhood of the Marquisate of Asti. They add, that the Duke of Vendome had oblig'd the Duke of Mantua, to give new Assurances that he would continue to adhere to the Interest of France, and to issue Orders to his Subjects of the Montferrat to take Arms against the Piemontois: And that that General had caus'd the Marquess de Melfo one of the chief Men of the Montferrat to be seiz'd, for not ordering his Vassals to Arm and march into the Field. These Letters further assure us, that a Detachment of the French was intrench'd at Ponte Tarnero, and that the Duke of Savoy was advanc'd to within half a League of that Place with a Body of Troops and 5 pieces of Cannon. Monsieur de Mellaredo Envoy of Savoy return'd from Lucerne to Bern on the 10th Instant. The lesser Cantons are shortly to meet at Lucerne, where that Minister is to make some Proposals to them relating to a Treaty made in the time of the Reformation, by which they are bound to furnish the Duke of Savoy with 10 or 12000 Men, and to take the Chablais under their Protection.

For this great Addition the Undertaker desires no more than 2s. 6d. to be advanc'd. Without this, he will be a loser by it; and he hopes no Promoter of the Work will comply unwillingly with such a reasonable Demand, especially if he considers, that 150 Sheets is cheaper at 15s. 6d. than 120 Sheets at 13s.
